HOW NFA GIVES BACK

"My NFA colleagues believe in giving back to our local and global communities through their contributions and volunteer efforts. I am thrilled to be part of a company that cares about others and wants to make a difference."

Edward J. Dasso
Senior Vice President
Market Regulation

"Healthy and productive employees are at the heart of NFA's story as a successful company. We believe caring for the health and wellness of NFA's workforce and investing in bettering our communities promote our employees' pursuit of excellence in their work."

Thomas W. Sexton III
President & CEO

"I am proud to be an officer of an organization that provides opportunities for its employees to help those in need. To give one's time and talent is a special feeling."
